

ERIS Distance Learning Guidelines

March 2020

PURPOSE AND PROCESS

- Continue to provide students with a relevant and meaningful learning experience, virtually.
- Utilize provided digital tools (Zoom, Google Apps, Interactive learning resources, etc.) for digital teaching and learning.

DISTANCE LEARNING

Agreements and Expectations:

Teachers are to prepare a daily agenda or message as well as a specific lesson and task(s) for students to follow during the designated class period(s).

Teachers will be online and available to assist students during specific times (previously scheduled and communicated to parents).

All teachers will continue to use a learning management system such as Google Classroom, Zoom and other tools.

● Distance Learning Schedule:

- All teachers and staff will report to school from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. to conduct online lessons via Zoom, send emails with work and resources, answer questions via email, and collect and correct student's work.
- If the government imposes stricter restrictions on transport, teachers and staff will report every Monday from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. to conduct online lessons via Zoom, send emails with the work that the students must do during the week, answer questions via email and collect and correct student's work.

● Communication:

- Communication within our staff, students and parents will be via WhatsApp, email and Zoom meetings.

Distance Learning Summary:

Tasks: Daily Message (video or photo with audio). Video Check ins and lessons. Assignments.

Frequency: Daily posted by 10:00 a.m. Teachers instruction and availability from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Directions/Notes: Provide instruction and activity for each course, keeping in mind that working independently at home takes more time for students.

- 1.Communicate learning objective, learning task/activity, instructions, and timelines clearly.
- 2.Emphasize that students are not to exceed this time and should move on to other tasks and/or courses as per their normal schedule.
